Dear Mr. Hurley:

Thank you for your kindness in sending me copies of the Richard Arens Memorial Issue of THE COMMON PLEAS, which includes your own personal tribute and editorial. Those who knew Richard Arens, professionally or simply as friend, respected him for his uncommon dedication and courage as both philosophic and personal champion of the rights of the individual. His loss from your ranks, and from the legal profession as a whole, is a misfortune indeed. Please accept my condolences.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
